President Vallieres decided that it would be better for the King of Serbia to postpone his intended visit, and sent a special mission to Basle, headed by M. Couderc, the French minister at Belgrade, to inform King Peter officially.

The general opinion is held that the lesson to be learned from the catastrophe is that the rule prohibiting spectators on the aviation field is one that should not be violated, even by members of the government.

Henri Maurice Berteaux was one of the most distinguished men in France engaged in political life. He had held the portfolio of Minister of War once before, but though he relinquished this, he had devoted himself to army affairs. He accepted that office again in the Monis Cabinet, which was formed March 2 of this year. He acquired a fortune in finance, and it was no secret that he cherished an ambition to become a candidate for President in 1913. His death is especially untimely for France, as, with M. Cruppi, he was directing the present delicate Moroccan question, which is still far from settlement.

Train Is Heart-Stricken.

Train, the pilot of the monoplane, and his passenger, Broun, were examined by the state's attorney, who is investigating the cause of the accident. Train was heartbroken that a national calamity was due to his efforts to avoid injury to the troops. Train is a small constructor, who made a machine for his personal use, and flew to Monmouth recently. He had already received an order to construct machines for the Ministry of War, and the colonels. Train was looked on as a careful, skillful and experienced pilot, and was well thought of by the military aviators at Châlons.

The latest statement issued by the attending physicians at night indicated that in all probability Premier Monis will recover. Professor Lannelongue and Doctors Tussier and Croizon issued a bulletin to the effect that the abdominal pains had diminished and that the condition of the patient continued excellent.

Take Quick Action.

Washington, D. C., May 21.—The Washington government took quick action to-night upon the news of the aeroplane accident at Issy les Moulins. It sent a message of condolence to the French government. Official Washington was advised of the accident through press dispatches. President Taft immediately addressed a note to Ambassador Jusserand, of France, expressing his sympathy in the death of Minister of War Berteaux and his earnest hope that Premier Monis, who was one of the injured, may recover.

Hundred Are Injured.

Odessa, May 21.—It is reported from Kursk, capital of the government, that the same name of an aeroplane fell among a crowd of sightseers on Saturday, injuring 100 persons. Five of the injured are not expected to recover.

The Lorimer Case Again.

With the opening up of the Lorimer case to-morrow, after recent developments in Chicago, there is every reason to believe that the case may not be concluded until along in the fall. In fact, Senator Fletcher, a member of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, said to-day that upon taking up the case again the whole committee would make the investigation and not a subcommittee, as was the case before.

It is a noticeable fact that since the last session of Congress, when Senator Lorimer was allowed to hold his seat in the Senate by a very slim majority, he has not been in his seat.

ONE MORE CHANCE

Many Business and Professional Men

Unless something happens to-day, Police Justice Crutchfield will have a distinguished array of defendants in his court for failure to pay city taxes. This is what might be termed the last call, and those who fail to settle the day must come into court, or go into court—it is all the same in the end. City Collector Hulce sat down at the telephone on Saturday, and after working there several hours he qualified for a job on one of those tax-collecting days. He got every citizen except the delinquent, and he was directly caused by the revolution.

Therefore, the two parties represented in this conference, in view of the previous considerations, have agreed to formulate the following agreement:

"From to-day on hostilities, which have existed in the entire national territory of the republic, shall cease between the forces of the government and those of the revolution, these forces to be disbanded in proportion as in each State the necessary steps are taken to re-establish and guaran-

SIX BLACKS VICTIMS OF MOB'S CLEVER RUSE

Lake City, Fla., May 21.—Six negroes were lynched here early this morning after a mob of more than a dozen men, masquerading as officers, appeared at the county jail and secured possession of the men by presenting a bogus telegram to the sixteen-year-old son of the sheriff, ordering the release of the blacks to the alleged posse of officers. The negroes were being held for safekeeping in the charge of murderer B. R. Smith, a sawmill man of Wadesboro, Leon county, and wounding another man named Register on May 12.

The men, who had come from Tallahassee to Lake City in automobiles, took the negroes about a mile outside of Lake City, compelled them to stand abreast, and about ten men commenced firing with Winchesters and pistols until every one of the six had been riddled with bullets. The firing lasted about half an hour, and a few struggling citizens at daybreak found the negroes butchered beyond recognition, just after the automobiles left the scene of the lynching.

The plans of the lynchers were most daring, and but for a curious combination of circumstances, would never have been accomplished. The sheriff of Columbia county was out of the city and left the jail in charge of the boy, who, aroused in the early hours of the morning, allowed the six negroes to be taken from the jail without knowing the sinister purpose of the mob.

The telegram, which the leader of the mob showed the boy, was supposed to be from the sheriff of Leon county and stated that the sheriff had received intimations that a mob was being formed in Tallahassee to take the negroes from the Lake City jail. The message ordered that the men be taken further south to frustrate the suspected mob. The telegram appeared authentic, as the six negroes have been moved frequently.

Residents of Lake City knew nothing of the lynching until a fusillade of distant shots was heard.

A few citizens went in the direction of the firing and found the negroes, but the lynchers had disappeared. By some it is believed that the negroes were to be hung, but resisted and were instantly killed to prevent escape. Some indications of a struggle substantiate this belief.

The crimes for which the negroes were held for safe-keeping had created strong feeling in Leon county, as the men shot were prominent, and a general race war was intimated at the preliminary hearing given the prison-

FOUND MARKED MONEY.

Woman Is Charged With Selling Liquor and Practically Confesses.

Beatrice Gordon (colored), of 27 West Canal Street, was arrested last night by Bicycle Policemen Thurman and Patrolman Voltz on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

When the officers entered the house they found five crates of empty beer bottles, a quart of gin and a quart of whiskey. On the table a person was found $17, part of which was marked money sent in by the officers. The woman admitted having received it in exchange for drinks, and practically confessed to the charge.

PEACE PACT SIGNED; MEXICAN WAR OVER

Representatives of Government and Revolutionists Meet at Juarez and Reach Agreement. All Rebel Demands Are Granted.

Juarez, Mexico, May 21.—Officially designated representatives of the Mexican government and the revolutionists, at 10 o'clock to-night, signed a peace agreement at the customs house here intended to end the hostilities that have been waged in Mexico for the last six months.

Though covering only the principal points negotiated thus far, the agreement practically records the concessions by the government of those demands which started on November 20 the last armed revolution in Mexico, announcing the signing of the agreement, the revolutionists dispatched throughout Mexico to revolutionary and Federal leaders alike.

The agreement follows:

"1. That General Porfirio Diaz has manifested his resolution of resigning the presidency of the republic before the end of the present month, and,

"2. That bona fide news is at hand that Karon Currai will resign the vice-presidency of the Republic within the same period, and,

"3. That by the administration of law, Senator Francisco Leon de Barra, at present Minister of Foreign Relations of the government of Senator Diaz, will assume for the interim the power of the executive of the nation and will call the general elections according to the terms of the Constitution, and,

"4. That the national government will study the conditions of public opinion to satisfy these conditions with the provisions of the Constitution, and will come to an agreement conducive to indemnifying the losses directly caused by the revolution.

"Therefore, the two parties represented in this conference, in view of the previous considerations, have agreed to formulate the following agreement:

"From to-day on hostilities, which have existed in the entire national territory of the republic, shall cease between the forces of the government and those of the revolution, these forces to be disbanded in proportion as in each State the necessary steps are taken to re-establish and guaran-

"3. That by the administration of law, Senator Francisco Leon de Barra, at present Minister of Foreign Relations of the government of Senator Diaz, will assume for the interim the power of the executive of the nation and will call the general elections according to the terms of the Constitution, and,

"4. That the national government will study the conditions of public opinion to satisfy these conditions with the provisions of the Constitution, and will come to an agreement conducive to indemnifying the losses directly caused by the revolution.

"Therefore, the two parties represented in this conference, in view of the previous considerations, have agreed to formulate the following agreement:

"From to-day on hostilities, which have existed in the entire national territory of the republic, shall cease between the forces of the government and those of the revolution, these forces to be disbanded in proportion as in each State the necessary steps are taken to re-establish and guaran-

This is what might be termed the last call, and those who fail to settle the day must come into court, or go into court—it is all the same in the end. City Collector Hulce sat down at the telephone on Saturday, and after working there several hours he qualified for a job on one of those tax-collecting days. He got every citizen except the delinquent, and he was directly caused by the revolution.
